Low and High Intensity Rehab Service Matrix

Note – all medical conditions must be stable and investigations addressed

*Note: Cambridge rehab beds continue to be housed at WRHN @ Chicopee

		WRHN@ Chicopee	St. Joseph Health Centre	Cambridge Memorial Hospital	Comments
Medical Procedure	Blood transfusion	Yes	Yes		No transfusion on day of transfer. No platelets.
	Bloodwork/Labs	Yes	Yes		Can manage routine bloodwork.
	Catheters/CBI	Yes	Yes
	Colostomy/Ileostomy	Yes	Yes		Referring site to start ADP process if applicable
	Feeding Tube/Drains	Yes	Yes		Percutaneous tubes only. Ideally bolus or nocturnal feeds to allow therapy time.
	Hemodialysis	Yes	Yes		WRHN @ Chicopee – consider Chicopee satellite site St. Joe's – must be supported at GGH satellite site
	IV (Antibiotics/ Hydration)	Yes	Yes		Able to manage IV antibiotics. Other medications may require pre-planning. Able to manage PICC. Port-a-Cath access needs to be maintained at time of transfer. Subclavian and IJ case by case.
	Oxygen	Yes – limited for high flow	Yes		If not on home O2 at baseline, indication for O2 and plan needs to be clear. CPAP and BiPAP if established, stable and patient's own
	Oncology	Yes	Yes		Established treatment plan which should not interfere with therapy needs. Consider where treatment occurring and send to appropriate site.
	Peritoneal Dialysis	Yes	Yes		Requires pre-planning; PD must be established prior to this admission St. Joe's – patient or care-partner must fully manage their PD
	Total Parenteral Nutrition (TPN)	No	No
	Tracheostomy	Yes	Yes		Established; no cuffed trachs. High humidity available St. Joe's – can only admit on RT days Mon or Thurs
	Wound Care	Yes	Yes		Wounds should not limit ability to participate. NPWT accepted.

Updated October 2026

Low and High Intensity Rehab Service Matrix

Note – all medical conditions must be stable and investigations addressed

*Note: Cambridge rehab beds continue to be housed at WRHN @ Chicopee

	Occupational Therapy	Yes	Yes
	Pharmacy	Yes	Yes		Chicopee & St. Joe's – Mon-Fri days on site. Special med orders require pre-planning
	Physician	Yes	Yes		Mon-Fri days on site; on call otherwise
	Physiotherapy	Yes	Yes
	RN/RPN	Yes	Yes
	Respiratory Therapy	Yes – 24/7	Mon and Thurs only
	Speech Language Pathology	Yes	Yes		Communication/swallowing follow up only. No instrumental assessments.
	Social Work	Yes	Yes		Follow up plans for mental health supports must be in place